

'Visegrad4 Seminars'

on

Economic and Social Change in Visegrad Countries (Czech Republic, Hungary, Poland, Slovakia)

organized by University of Miskolc, Faculty of Economics Institute of World and Regional Economics

2012/2013 Academic Year, Spring

PROGRAMME of SERIES:

Lecturer	Topic	Date and venue
Oto Hudec Professor Technical University of Košice (SK)	Quality of Life in the European cities, with special scope on Visegrad countries	17th April, 13.00 h Building C2F -Room 108
Jan Suchacek Associate Professor Technical University of Ostrava (CZ)	Spatial differentiation of transformation in the Czech Republic
Tomas Kossowski Assistance Professor Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań (PL)	Spatial effects: how to find and measure them. Some examples on Visegrad Four	22nd April, 14.00 h Building C2F -Room 108
Oto Potluka Researcher IREAS, Institute for Structural Policy (CZ)	EU cohesion policy and capacities of civil society organisations	17th May, 10.00 h Building C2F -Room 108

The events consist of lectures and discussions (Q&A)!

The Series is a part of Project (Visegrad University Studies Grant, Ref.No.: 61100002) financed by International Visegrad Fund!

The event is free and open to general public!

Further information: Dániel Kuttor (kuttor.daniel@uni-miskolc.hu; +36-46-565111 / ext. 1887) or <http://gtk.uni-miskolc.hu/visegrad4studies>